

What else can you use a rubber jar opener for you ask?

Here is 50 + Suggested Uses

1. Used to help remove mouthpieces from trumpets and tubas.
2. Put one on the console of your SUV and your cell phone won't slide forward when stopping normally.
3. Put one under your desk fan and it will stop that annoying rattle from the base.
4. Great for holding hot or cold drinks.
5. Cut tiny slits in one and put in your potted plants to help retain moisture and keep weeds out.
6. Helps to open "child-proof" bottles.
7. Place around a needle so it pulls through easier while sewing.
8. Use to twist sprinkler devices and separate the hoses.
9. Wrap around a butcher knife handle to avoid slipping.
10. Use for extra grip to help remove the oil filter in a car.
11. When squeezing juice, place under juicer to keep from sliding.
12. Place a jar opener between the rod and the tile to keep your shower curtain from falling.
13. Use a jar opener and a sheet metal screw to plug a leak in a water line until a plumber can make a repair.
14. Works great for shucking oysters!
15. Place a clove of garlic in the jar opener. Roll on counter. The skin comes right off.
16. Place a jar opener on a seat of a highchair to keep the baby from sliding down in the chair.
17. Place a jar opener under a pet's food bowl. This prevents the bowl from "traveling" around the kitchen floor.
18. A jar opener is good for removing stuck light bulbs.
19. Use as a trivet at a picnic.
20. Opens jars or bottles of course!
21. Holds the telephone when hands are slippery.
22. Holds a cake in place on a counter while frosting.
23. Put small pieces under frame edges to protect walls.
24. Place a jar opener under a laptop computer to prevent sliding.
25. A jar opener makes a great glass and cup coaster for your desk.
26. Jar openers make great liners for drawers.

27. Use to unscrew the bottom of the blender to wash it.
28. Works great under a cutting board to keep it from slipping when slicing veggies.
29. In a pinch, use as an emergency lint remover.
30. Place in between iron skillet when storing so they do not get scratched.
31. What is better for a mouse pad?
32. Place jar opener under chair legs to keep chair from sliding.
33. Place jar opener under table leg to help balance table.
34. Keep in your car to help loosen lug nuts on the tire wheel when you have to change a tire.
35. Forget paper, use jar opener as a modern-day business card.
36. Put under your plate when you are carving meat to keep the platter from sliding around.
37. Jar openers are the new hot soap dishes, so your soap does not slide off the bathtub.
38. It gives you a good grip on a screwdriver or other tools.
39. Place under a throw rug to keep it from sliding on tile.
40. Use it to remove rubber sole shoe stains and marks from linoleum
41. As an insole, it stops feet from sliding around in your shoe.
42. It is especially useful for opening nail polish!
43. When installing a new DVD player, use to twist off cable cords.
44. Place under a plant pot to prevent discoloring wood surfaces.
45. Use to grip and carry a heavy suitcase.
46. Place under radar detector on your dashboard.
47. Use to loosen a chuck key when inserting bits in a drill.
48. Put under a standing picture frame to prevent sliding tables.
49. Keep in a child's drawer to stop marbles from sliding around.
50. When using an electric mixer, place under a sliding bowl.
51. Use under a plant so it will not fall off a stand when bumped.
52. When transporting a hot bowl on a plate, put under the bowl so it will not slide off the plate.
53. While outside, place over your cup of beverage so bugs will not fly in.
54. Works good as a spare drainer stopper in the tub.
55. When transporting your bike on the back of the car, use under the legs of rack to prevent paint chipping.
56. Works as a safety measure under a ladder to prevent slipping.
57. For those that put things on your speakers, put under your objects to prevent falling off when vibrating.